

Call for Participation

Are you a member of or actively engaged in the leadership of a youth group/initiative dedicated to peace, exchange and a strong voice of the youth in the Great Lakes Region? Now is the opportunity to be part of the new project “Great Lakes Youth Network for Dialogue and Peace. Our Diversity – our Opportunity! “

Who are we:

We are a consortium of 6 non-governmental organizations: Konrad Adenauer Foundation (Germany), Pole Institute (DRC), Vision Jeunesse Nouvelle (Rwanda), Cornerstone Development Africa & LéO Africa Institute (Uganda), and Actions for Democracy and Local Governance (Tanzania). Together, we implement the project “Great Lakes Youth Network for Dialogue and Peace. Our Diversity – our Opportunity!” co-funded by the European Union (EU) and the German Ministry for Economic Cooperation and Development (BMZ).

What is this project about:

Many youths in the region are taking action and are part of the solutions that the Great Lakes Region needs. They actively engage in various fields that contribute to peace. However, the challenges they face are many and prevent them from being more impactful and making their voices heard. This project seeks to build on this momentum through dialogue and opportunities of exchange for youth organizations and other key actors. The project will be a crossroads between youth groups and local, national and international stakeholders in politics, the private sector, civil society, NGOs, academia and the media.

By promoting the active, cooperative, sustainable and positive role of youth actions, creating a strong network between them and bringing all stakeholders on board, this project aims to contribute to peace and stability in the Great Lakes Region.

Why should you apply:

Over a project duration of three years, we offer you a unique opportunity to, firstly, strengthen your organization’s internal capacities in areas most relevant to your work: effective communication, advocacy, resource mobilization, organization structuring etc., through high-quality training workshops, including a training of trainers component. The project also offers a sub-granting scheme and a mentoring programme for the best project ideas to be supported. Secondly, you will be enabled to build a network with other youth organizations in your country and in the region through frequent exchanges, cross-border discussions and three regional summer schools. Thirdly, we will offer you access to a strong national and regional network of stakeholders to encourage exchanges and possible cooperation in the future.

Who do we look for:

We are looking for local youth groups and initiatives that are committed to peace in the Great Lakes Region and are active in one or more of the following fields:

Great Lakes Youth Network for Dialogue and Peace. Our Diversity – our Opportunity!

gender equality, environment (including natural resources) and climate change, political representation, democracy and good governance, land and inheritance, economic stability and employment, media, education, culture and religion and forced migration and who are:

- Empowering youth with the means and space to develop their own solutions to conflict;
- Creating spaces for youth for change;
- Building trust, dialogue and reconciliation;
- Creating a culture of peace;
- strengthening social cohesion and stability

If you believe that your field of action also contributes to peace but was not mentioned, do not hesitate and convince us with your application.

You should commit to participate, proactively contribute towards the implementation of project activities for the entire project duration and be willing to travel in the region to meet your peers.
